

Annenberg, Defendant in Biggest Criminal Income Tax Case, Pleads Guilty

Confesses Evasion of $1,217,296 in Taxes for Year 1936

Chicago, April 23.—(AP)—M. L. Annenberg, defendant in the largest criminal federal income tax case in history, pleaded guilty today to evading $1,217,296.73 of income taxes for the year 1936.

The plea by the wealthy Philadelphia publisher and former head of an international racing news empire was entered to the fifth count of an indictment accusing him of evading $3,258,809.97 in taxes for the years 1932 to 1936, inclusive.

Fifty per cent penalties and six per cent interest would bring to $5,548,381.89 the aggregate which the federal government claimed against him.

A plea of guilty to the fifth count also was entered by Joseph Hafner, alias Samuel Goldfarb, a business associate of Annenberg, who with 11 others was accused of aiding and abetting the publisher in the alleged evasion.

William J. Campbell, United States District Attorney, informed Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson before a courtroom packed with defendants, attorneys and curious that the attorney general had directed him to advise the court that at the time of sentencing Annenberg and Hafner the government intended to dismiss all other counts of the indictment and other income tax indictments against them.

No Recommendations
"The government," Campbell continued, "has not agreed to make any recommendation as to the sentence to be imposed on the foregoing pleas of guilty."

Weymouth Kirkland, chief of the Annenberg defense battery, explained the wealthy publisher's position thus:
"All that Mr. Annenberg cares to say now is that he was influenced by the fact that any alternative would involve years of trying and expensive litigation. At the same time, he hopes to dispose of the civil claims for taxes that have been and will be made against him and the companies in which he is interested."

"He further hopes that by taking responsibility upon himself so far as he can, this will be taken into consideration by the government and the court in connection with the charges pending against his associates and employees."

"In the proceedings upon the imposition of sentence we feel confident that the absence of any serious charge of moral turpitude will appear and Mr. Annenberg asks that judgment be reserved on this until then."

Disposition May 23
The court set May 23 for the disposition of all pleas. The defendants—13 in all—pleaded innocent to the various counts of the indictment until the fifth count was reached. Then Annenberg and Hafner entered their guilty pleas.

The fifth count alleged that Annenberg's net income for the year 1936 was $2,312,634.47 whereas he reported it as $731,640.75 and paid

St. Louis Taking Egypt's Boycott to Justice Dept.

St. Louis, April 23.—(AP)—The U. S. department of justice was asked today if the trade boycott—weapon of some southern Illinois cities to stop enforcement of the new smoke elimination ordinance here—is not a "conspiracy" in restraint of trade.

Appealing to a "referee" in the coal war, James L. Ford, Jr., chairman of the St. Louis smoke committee, wrote Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold for a decision on the legality of the boycott.

"I am wondering," Ford asked, "if this (boycott) is not a conspiracy against the federal law dealing with restraint of trade?" He expressed doubt the retaliatory action would have any lasting effect, but asked immediate prosecution if it is illegal.

Faced with a loss of part of their lucrative coal market here, several cities in Illinois' Egypt threatened to boycott St. Louis merchandise several days ago. Last night the Herrin city council passed a resolution urging its merchants to withhold further purchases from St. Louis.

Meanwhile, five Illinois communities near St. Louis—including Belleville and East St. Louis—pledged co-operation with the smoke law. Likewise, an organization of industries in St. Clair county expressed approval.

Ford has explained the smoke measure requires the processing of only 25 per cent of the coal obtained from Illinois and does not apply to the rest being used here.

Attorney General Pleads Dismissal Bloomington Suit

Bloomington, Ill., April 23.—(AP)—Dismissal of a suit challenging Governor Horner's right to office was asked by Attorney General John E. Cassidy in a motion on file today in the McLean county circuit court.

A petition for a mandamus to compel Lieut. Gov. John Stelle to assume authority as acting governor was filed recently by attorneys for James McComb, a Chicago publicity man.

The suit contended the governor was unable to discharge his duties by reason of illness and asked that a medical commission be appointed to examine the chief executive.

Attorney General Cassidy contended that the circuit court lacked jurisdiction in the case and had no authority to enter any order, such as the appointment of a medical commission, which will "affect or interfere with the discharge of the duties imposed upon him by law x x x."

Acted for Stelle, Too
The attorney general sent the motion from Springfield by messenger late yesterday. He acted in behalf of both Governor Horner and Stelle, but the latter said it was done without his consent and that he would file a separate motion.

Dixon Future Farmers to Banquet Their Dads

Arthur Schick, formerly of Dixon and now agriculture instructor at Oregon high school, will be the principal speaker Friday night when the Dixon high school chapter of the Future Farmers of America holds its annual father and son banquet at the school cafeteria.

Orval Gearhart, a member of the local chapter, will be the toastmaster and a musical program will be presented by the high school string ensemble.

L. V. Slothower, local agriculture instructor who announced the program today, said that a feature of the evening will be a sound motion picture of the 1939 Illinois state fair.

An innovation this year will be the decoration of the banquet room in the blue and gold colors of the chapter, surmounted by the large banner which was recently purchased.

Former National Chaplain of Legion Will Speak in Dixon on Memorial Day

President J. M. Brady of the Dixon Memorial Association today announced a special program to be held in conjunction with the annual Memorial Day exercises in Dixon Thursday, May 30, when the Rev. Fr. Joseph Lonergan, former national chaplain of the American Legion organization and chaplain in the Rainbow division during the World War, well known throughout this locality, will be one of the speakers.

BRITISH LEVIES INCREASED; WAR COSTS MOUNTING

Government Estimates It's Needs for Year $9,334,500,000.00

London, April 23.—(AP)—Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, grimly told the House of Commons today that the expenditure for the current 1940-41 fiscal year will be £2,667,000,000, ($9,334,500,000).

This he said, would be the total of war costs and government expenditures and asked the nation to accept the burden "for the sake of victory."

Calling his report "heartening," he said nevertheless that Britain's war expenditures for the first seven months of conflict—down to the end of the 1939-40 fiscal year, March 31—amounted to £905,000,000 about $3,167,000,000.

To strike a balance for the 1939-40 year, he said the government had had to borrow £768,000,000 about $2,698,000,000.

He said the rate of spending on the war was about £1,500,000,000 a year, but was increasing.

"I consider it to be necessary by means of additional taxation to increase the revenue," Sir John said, estimating the 1940-41 revenue at £1,132,000,000 about $3,962,000,000.

Income Tax 3 1/2 Percent

He said he would resort both to direct and indirect levies. He reminded the nation that the income tax rate beginning April 1 would be seven and a half shillings in the pound (37 1/2 per cent) as had been announced at the time of his emergency war budget soon after the conflict began.

The chancellor announced an increase of one penny a pint (about 1 1/2 cents) in the tax on beer, three pence (about five cents) an ounce in the tobacco duty and an increase of the ordinary letter rate from one penny half penny (about two cents) to two pence half penny (about three cents). Inland telephone charges will be increased 15 per cent.

He estimated the beer tax increase would produce £18,000,000 in a full year and that the postal rate increase, including an increase on foreign postage of a half-penny, would produce £10,000,000 this year and £11,000,000 in a full fiscal year.

Springfield's Scouts to Census Bureau Aid

Springfield, Ill., April 23.—(AP)—The Boy Scouts came to the aid of the federal census bureau here today.

A preliminary census report gave Springfield's population as 77,195, a gain of 7.4 per cent over the 1930 figure. But city officials and the Chamber of Commerce contended there are more people than that in the capital. They said a city directory canvass put the population at about 85,000.

So the Boy Scout organization offered to make a canvass to locate residents who may have been missed by the regular enumerators and the offer was accepted by Census Supervisor Paul G. Dixon. The Scouts were instructed to notify the census office when they find a family not listed by the regular enumerators.

Dixon said the census books would be kept open pending completion of the Scout canvass.

Meticulous

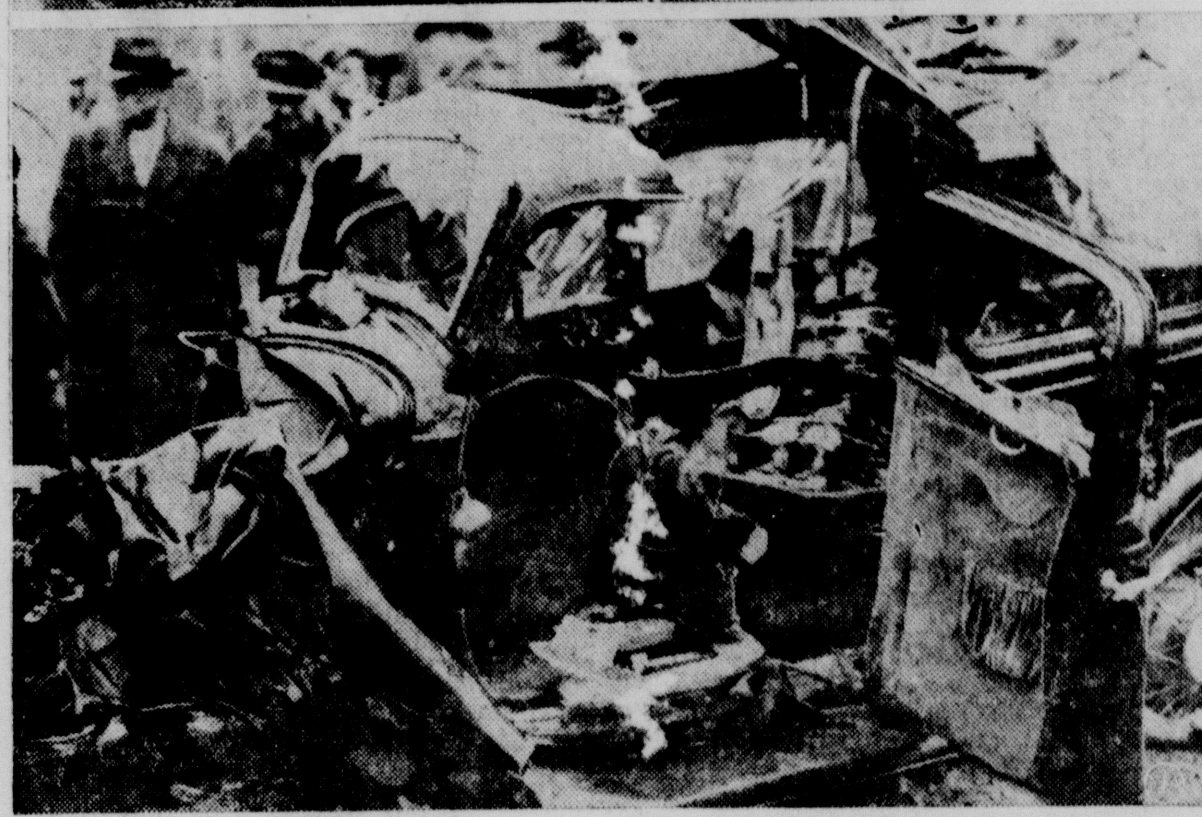

Chicago, Apr. 23.—(AP)—Edward Buttgen, it would seem, is quite a stickler for detail.

Buttgen's wife, Mary, during a divorce hearing, showed the court a letter accompanying a money order which itemized the 41 cents Buttgen had deducted from his support-money payment.

The deductions included: 14 cents for carfare, 15 cents for money order, two cents for postage, and 10 cents for "service charge."

Unimpressed Judge Joseph Sabath ordered Buttgen to refund the 41 cents and pay up a $35-support arrearage by May 2—or go to jail.

Friends Come to Aid of Oklahoma Fugitive Slayer

Springfield, Ill., April 23.—(AP)—Earl Jarrett, formerly an Oklahoma convict and now an oil field drilling superintendent at Salem, Ill., depended today upon testimony of a dozen friends and acquaintances as to his sobriety and industry to forestall his return to McAlester penitentiary to serve out a life sentence for murder.

Jarrett, 35, who has been working under the name of Howard Martin in various Illinois oil fields also testified in his own behalf yesterday at an extradition hearing conducted by Commissioner Paul E. Hansen.

Jarrett said he was sentenced to McAlester for life after pleading guilty to the murder of Henry Oates, a former revenue agent, at Csage, Okla., in 1925.

The oil driller related that Oates had "taunted my sister and my niece and persisted in calling them nasty names." He said he was advised by a lawyer appointed to defend him to plead guilty.

Hailstorm Does Great Damage in Paris, Tex.

Paris, Texas, April 23.—(AP)—A 20-minute hailstorm, so heavy it piled stones fender-deep against automobiles, damaged homes, stores and trees an estimated $500,000 yesterday and injured two men.

Melvin Williams, 32, a mechanic, suffered a broken back and Edwin Cothran, a shoulder fracture. A building in which they were working caved in, presumably from the weight of water.

W. N. Furey, managing editor of the Paris Daily News, estimated the damage at more than $500,000.

Violent Naval Battles, Sharp Land Fighting in Norway Reported Today

The War Today!

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The speed which the Battle of Norway has developed demonstrating that the earlier slow-motion war in reality had been geared for fast action—gives rise to the natural query as to how long the general conflict must run to bring peace.

Nazidom has given us a fair indication of the likely answer.

The blunt disclosure by Nazi Minister of Economics Walther Funk of the ruthless way in which Germany is drawing on her reserves coupled with word from Berlin that the Nazi regime is determined to make good Herr Hitler's promise to force a decision in the war this year, strikes me as highly significant for those seeking to estimate the length of the conflict.

I think we can take it for granted that it was no idle gesture which the Nazi chieftain made when he set this year for the windup.

And Herr Funk—the go-getter economist of the barter-trade school who has been Hitler's economic adviser since 1930, three years before the Fuehrer came to power—is impelled by something more substantial than fancy in using strong-arm methods to meet Germany's pressing war needs.

Hitler's promise and Funk's alchemical search for gold seem to me to be the very logical corollaries to the development of a situation which calls for the utmost speed.

There are now so many reasons why the Nazi leader shouldn't try to beat the allies at their own game.

Everything 'Perfect' on New York Central Before Friday's Wreck

Albany, N. Y., April 23.—(AP)—Cause of the Little Falls, N. Y., wreck which killed 30 persons and injured 100 remains a mystery today after indefinite adjournment of an investigation producing testimony the New York Central's Lake Shore limited was in "perfect condition" before the accident.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, New York State Public Service Commission and the railroad rechecked the inquiry while rail workers cleared up the remainder of the wreckage after removal of the last two of nine derailed cars. Condition of some 40 victims still in Little Falls and Herkimer, N. Y., hospitals was reported unchanged.

Track and roadbed conditions at the scene of Friday night's pileup were "excellent" before the wreck, A. R. Jones, division engineer, declared at the investigation.

Engineer Jesse Earl, Albany, who was to be buried today, was "awake and alert" just before the crash, Jones added. Otherwise, he said, automatic signals 8,000 and 2,600 feet from the curve would have stopped the fast New York-Chicago train.

Concert League Final Drive Before Concert at High School Tonight

Officers of the Dixon Concert League are anticipating a busy session at the box office at the Dixon high school auditorium tonight, preceding the concert by the Saidenberg Symphonietta, which is scheduled for 8:15 o'clock. Holders of tickets for the 1939-40 season will be hastening to renew their subscriptions (either by pledge card, part payment, or payment in full) to take advantage of the guest card offer for the Saidenberg program.

Those planning to subscribe for next year's programs, may attend the Saidenberg concert tonight, without extra cost, if they apply for a paid-up membership by this evening. The box office will be open for acceptance of pledge cards and sale of memberships one hour before concert time.

Pittsburgh, April 23.—(AP)—Hyman Vogel put most of his savings into a $12,000 home, then had to stand by speechless and helpless as the two-story dwelling fell apart amid his $3,000 worth of furniture.

First his back yard and part of the back porch went rumbling down a hillside after recent heavy rains washed out dirt used to fill in beneath the home.

The butcher shop proprietor moved his family out when huge cracks appeared in the brick structure. The next day the whole house toppled down. A tornado couldn't have wrecked it more thoroughly.

"Why I only lived in it six months," said Vogel, an unbelieving catch in his voice. "Yeah, can you believe it? They told me I could put a 15-story apartment on that piece of property!"

The meat dealer asked the city to inspect the ground before his home was built. An inspector who approved the foundation commented that "no human judgment is infallible."

Britain and Germany Both Report Battle on Norse Soil

Stockholm.—Allied attempts to win Narvik and Trondheim apparently nearing showdown; Narvik's population flees before bombardment, allies try to encircle Trondheim.

Paris.—French military authorities cite Swedish fears of invasion by Germany; allied economic chiefs plan aerial policing to blockade Germany in air.

London.—Britain's five new battleships to be "largest, most powerful" in world; British claim 24 German warship "casualties" since start of war; foresee fiscal year expenditures totalling £2,667,000,000.

Tokyo.—Britain and Germany vie for Japan's favor as "benevolent neutral"; United States envoy protests against hardships of Americans under Japanese blockade of foreign area at Chinese port of Tientsin.

BULLETIN

Stockholm, April 23.—(AP)—The newspaper Allehanda reported from the Swedish west coast that two violent naval battles were raging today in the Skagerrak with both surface and air forces involved.

The thunder of cannonading, it said, indicated the severest fighting so far off the Swedish coast.

At least 10 destroyers raced past the battle area with their guns roaring, the newspaper said and disappeared within a few minutes.

The newspaper said the battle apparently began with an attack on a transport fleet and that many fighting planes were involved.

The newspaper Aftenbladet reported from Waunas, Lithuania, that Germany was massing troops, weapons and munitions in large quantities in German harbors in the Memel district of East Prussia.

It said the Baltic states were not disturbed, being confident that any intended action was not directed at them.

By The Associated Press

An supreme council meeting was disclosed to have taken place yesterday and today in Paris and to have received assurances that the resources of the Polish government and people were being reorganized actively.

Fighting in Norway was reported both by Germany and Britain. It was the first acknowledgement in Berlin of contact on land between the two major enemies. All others reported previously had been sea and air engagements.

The British said a "sharp engagement" had occurred north of Trondheim, German-held port of the Norwegian west coast. They said British forces, in conjunction with the Norwegians, also were resisting German pressure in southern Norway.

Acknowledge Bombardment

The German high command acknowledged today that the British navy had opened fire on the far northern Norwegian port of Narvik. The population of the town apparently had taken to cover in response to an earlier Fifteen Violate Motor Rules and Pay Fines to P. M.

Police Magistrate James E. Bales presided in traffic court from 7 o'clock last night until 2 o'clock this morning, administering fines to violators of city speed and traffic ordinances. Fifteen violators, arrested by Officers Frank Tyne, John Bohnstiel, and Harry Jones over the week-end, appeared in court and were fined under instructions of Commissioner Cal Tyler to enforce speed and traffic regulations throughout the city.

Speeders and motorists who failed to stop at traffic intersections were the two classes of violators arraigned in traffic court last night. Fines of $5 and costs were assessed against speeders while a penalty of $1 and costs was exacted from those who failed to obey traffic intersection stop signs. Payers were:

Speeders: Elmer Jacobsen, Rockford; Bernard Reuter, Grant; Stiles, Walter Hoyle, Harold Morris, Earl Charvat, Robert Wright, Dixon; Roman Butler, Amboy, and Claude Frazier, East Moline.

Stop sign violators—Lowell Wilson, Daniel Blackburn, Hubert Howell, Enos Rohrer and W. Wade Pierce, Dixon, and Walter Ettinger, Sterling.

Of Interest to Farmers

FRANK PRIEBE'S WEEKLY LETTER to POULTRY RAISERS

England has been getting a third of its eggs and half of its bacon from Denmark.

But last week the Germans marched into Denmark and cut off this source of British food supplies. England must turn to some other country for the bacon and the 98 million dozen eggs they got last year from the Danes.

The egg market has already advanced because buyers in this country and Canada anticipate English business and want eggs. Pork is higher because it looks as if the United States will be supplying England — either directly or through Canada — with the bacon they formerly got from Denmark.

Purchasing agents for the British government are trying to get the Neutrality Law amended so they can purchase food in this country on a credit basis. If they are successful, pork will undoubtedly be exported in quantities and the price will continue to rise. The poultry market is already firmer as a result of the rise in the pork market.

Raise More Poultry

Much as we regret the world events of the last two weeks, there is no reason why we should ignore the effect they are likely to have on the market for poultry and eggs.

People have been a little hesitant about starting chicks this spring. But I see no reason why anyone should hesitate now. We may have raised a lot of poultry last year. But it looks to me as if we ought to raise more this year. If we are going to have chickens and eggs to sell next fall and winter, the chicks must be hatched now.

If you have already started one lot of chicks, they can soon be put out on range and you can use the brooder house for a second lot. I think, in the light of what has happened these last few weeks, you should consider this seriously.

Sincerely yours,

Frank Pribe

May 21 Set as Final Date to Obtain 1941 Allotment of Wheat

Notice has been given by Robert Karstedt, chairman of the Agricultural Conservation committee of Ogle county, that farmers who do not have a wheat allotment and who wish an allotment of wheat acreage for the 1941 crop should apply at the Conservation association office at Oregon for such allotment before May 31 this year as that will be the final date for such applications.

It is also announced that April 30 will be the final date for signing farm planning sheets known as number 403 for participation in this year's program. Mr. Karstedt states that the number of farms participating in Ogle county this year is within five per cent of the number last year and he is anticipating further applications.

Texas Steers Sent to Ogle County To Be Fattened for Market

There should be no beef shortage in this section this year after Supervisor Sam Willis of White Rock and other cattle feeders recently shipped in a lot of good white face steers from Texas which are to be fattened upon the grasses of Ogle county until such a time as they appear sufficiently prime for market.

Supervisor Willis obtained 170 head of the shipment. Fred Schlafman took 86, Edgar Hain 42, Fred Smith and tenants 42.

The steers weigh about 700 pounds on an average and should develop well in the Ogle county farms.

Cattle Feeders to Hear Marketing Discussed

Cattle feeders of Ogle county are invited to attend a meeting sponsored by the Farm Bureau at the court house in Oregon Monday evening, April 29, to hear the market situation for the coming six months discussed by representatives of the cooperative livestock agency on the Chicago market. The market prediction will be based partly upon the replies received from a large number of cattle feeders giving the number and kind of cattle they have on feed and the date when they plan having their cattle on the market. The public is invited to the meeting.

Oregon Youth's Project Story on Care of Sheep Wins F. F. A. Contest

Henry Johnson, student in the Oregon high school was the first prize winner in the recent contest conducted by the Future Farmers of America chapter.

Homer Sell was awarded second prize, Edward Seabold was given third prize and Harry Reynolds, Gene Schier and Everett Jacobs received honorable mention.

The first in this series of articles to be printed each week in this page is that of young Johnson, first prize winner.

MY PROJECT STORY (1st Prize Essay)

I selected sheep as my project because they would be easier to raise and take care of at a greater income.

In selecting my project I looked in several bulletins and magazines to find where I could locate two or three purebred ewes and the price of each. After a few weeks of investigating I located a place at Mount Carroll, Ill. where they had purebred Oxford sheep for sale. The price of each was thirty-four dollars. The owners name was Edwin Kiem.

I chose this breed because they were the nearest to home and the price was the most reasonable of all that I had inquired about. On March 21, 1939, the two ewes were trucked home by a friend, who charged me three dollars. I housed them in one side of our horse barn with no extra cost. I fed them two pounds of grain and two pounds of hay apiece in a day, plus all of the salt they wanted.

On April second my oldest ewe gave birth to twin lambs. One was a ram lamb and the other a ewe lamb. The ram lamb was strong and healthy, but the ewe lamb had to be helped to nurse for a day or more. Sixteen days later on April the eighteenth the other ewe gave birth to a single lamb which was a ram. A week or so later I built a lamb creep where I fed ground corn and oats.

In a few weeks the lambs were eating the grain and were then strong enough to have their tails docked. After docking I had the two old ewes sheared. The wool amounted to about twenty pounds, or approximately ten pounds apiece.

I turned all of them out on pasture after the lambs tails had stopped bleeding. While they were on good pasture, I fed about the same amount of grain, but decreased the hay content until I could omit it entirely.

All through my year in agriculture work I had very good progress, because I had no disease or sickness of any kind to hinder the project.

A few weeks before showing time I started to feed them rather heavily with a ration made up of ground corn, ground oats, wheat bran, and linseed oil meal. One week before the vocational show I trimmed them with the aid of others.

On the afternoon of August 21, I went to the Vocational Agriculture show in Peconia, where I made very good returns. Here is the list of awards that I won: First on my aged ewe which amounted to six dollars. Second on my yearling ewe which brought four dollars. First on my ewe lamb which amounted to five dollars. Second and third on two ram lambs which together brought five dollars. Last of all and the greatest I won first and Grand Champion over all breeds with my pen of three lambs. This sum amounted to eight dollars. Totaling all of these up I received twenty-eight dollars, and eight ribbons for my first showing experience.

Three or four days later I showed at the 4-H show which was held in Oregon where I won second on my ewe lamb which brought me two dollars and fifty cents.

While the animals were not being shown I had them blanketed with blankets that I had made out of sacks. After the shows I took the blankets off and let them run in the pasture as usual.

After discounting all of the expenses for the year, my total income amounted to eighty dollars and four cents from five animals.

After being enrolled in agriculture work for two years and making the returns I did on my project I intend to continue my work with it. I had great pleasure in taking care of them and shaming them. After the luck I had, I believe I will still hold true to "Oxford." In my working of shaming I learned to judge more accurately at judging contests, and to keep the animals in good condition throughout the entire year.

My conclusions are that if any boy has an opportunity to gain vocational agriculture or 4-H work, it would be best for him to state it because of the learning and experience that is involved in it.

CORN

The gradually tightening cash situation, due to the artificial scarcity of free corn resulting from government ownership of over 250 million bushels of the 1938 crop, and the sealing of over 290 million bushels from the current crop, so long and persistently ignored, suddenly developed the aspects of a virtual corner. As country offerings failed to increase when the May price in Chicago crossed 60 cents, the futures market developed into a run-away affair, advancing between 5 and 6 cents, to the highest level of prices reached in over three years. Encouraged by the sharp upturn in livestock values, farmers displaying almost complete indifference to advancing bids, and cash prices more than keep pace with futures, sales in the sample market ranging from 66 1/2 to 68 cents. Indications of a carryover on October first, equal to, and possibly in excess of the record 1939 figure, was temporarily without market influence, but the fact remains that it will be in existence. The Buenos Aires market has held about steady around the 35 cent level, as the government has extended a loan of about 15 cents a bushel to producers, to prevent the necessity of distress selling to meet costs of harvesting the big crop which was officially estimated at 435 million bushels. Shipments since April first have averaged less than 3 million bushels a week, and indications are for an excessive carryover at the end of the crop year.

OATS

This market has made a very poor response to the strength in other grains, particularly corn, holders of May contracts taking advantage of the surrounding strength to secure profits. Receipts have continued small shipping demand active, sales totaling 173,000 bushels, and cash premiums have been well maintained. The newly seeded crop was back frozen, entailing much reseeded, and a consequent further drain upon small reserve stocks. The visible supply continues to decline, and now totals only 6,367,000 bushels as compared with 11,615,000 bushels last year.

SOY BEANS

There has been less pressure of liquidation of old crop contracts, although some May holdings have been switched into July. Receipts have shown a fair increase, but cash prices have held firm with No. 2 Yellow at May price. The Bureau of Agricultural Economics forecast a crop of between 100 and 110 million bushels, based on farmers' intention to plant, and normal weather conditions and yield per acre, but there is a

Book Exhibit Will Mark Pan-American Union Anniversary

In commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding Pan-American Union, the Library of International Relations announces the opening of an exhibit of books, official documents, and periodicals from the Latin American countries. The exhibit will be held at 56 E. Randolph street, Chicago, from April 24 to April 30 and will be free to the public. The Pan-American Council of Chicago is co-operating with the Library in presenting the exhibit.

Books on travel, current economic reports from banking houses, and pamphlets on a variety of subjects from coffee to education are among the materials to be displayed. There are also a large number of official publications currently presented to the Library by the governments of the Latin American countries. Among these is the Uruguayan Blue Book on the Admiral Graff Spee incident that has just been received by the Library. Subject matter covered includes politics, economics, history, and culture of the American countries. The books are printed in English, Spanish, Portuguese and French.

In addition to the selected material from the permanent resources of the Library, a special exhibit of Latin American printing has been loaned by the American Institute of Graphic Arts. These posters, books, prints, and illustrations were collected for the Institute by the Division of Intellectual Co-operation of the Pan American Union.

Other Items

Among items in this collection deserving special mention are nineteen lithographs of Taxco by Roberto Montenegro of Mexico as well as twelve woodcuts by Jose Sabogal of Peru. A recent issue of the periodical "Mexican Art and Life" is particularly timely because it contains an account of the celebration of the 400th anniversary of printing in Mexico this year. This parallels the celebration in this country of the 500th anniversary of the invention of movable type by Gutenberg as well as the 300th anniversary of printing in the United States.

The exhibit will be opened with a tea on Tuesday, April 23, in order that the members of the Library of International Relations and of the Pan American Council may have the opportunity of previewing the exhibit. Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Robert Platt, president of the Pan American Council, Mrs. William S. Cuthbertson, former president of the Council, Mrs. William B. Hale, trustee of the Library, Mrs. Quincy Wright, delegate to the Lima Conference, Mrs. Charles S. Dewey, trustee of the library and of the Pan American Council, Mrs. Paul Magnuson, who has just returned feeling in the trade, that a crop of this size can be disposed of, because of rapidly expanding utilization. The weekly review of the meal market reported demand fair and prices generally firm, and resale offerings moderate at from even with, to 50 cents under the larger mill prices.

PASTURE MIXTURE LASTS LONGER AND CONTROLS EROSION

A good pasture mixture spreads the grazing season over a longer period and makes a thick, even sod over the entire field to help control erosion, explains R. F. Fuelleman, assistant in crop production at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

A recommended pasture mixture for northern Illinois to be seeded by April might include 5 pounds rye grass, 3 pounds timothy, 4 pounds redtop, 3 pounds Kentucky bluegrass, 2 pounds alsike clover and 2 pounds alfalfa to the acre on sweet soil. For southern Illinois the same mixture can be sown where the soil has been limed. On sour soil, alsike clover and lespedeza should be substituted for the bluegrass, red clover and alfalfa.

In this mixture rye grass acts as a nurse crop and furnishes early pasture while the other grasses are starting. In northern Illinois the rye grass is followed by the clovers and timothy, then the bluegrass, redtop and sweet clover. In southern portions of the state lespedeza begins to furnish pasture where the rye grass and timothy leave off.

"Livestock seem to like a pasture mixture better than a single crop. When clover and grasses are mixed there is less danger from bloat than when clover is used alone. Alfalfa in a mixture also is better for the same reason than alfalfa alone."

Pasture improvement, seeding of legumes, spreading of limestone, and erosion control are four practices in a five-point program being emphasized in Illinois this year to enable farmers to get more conservation of soil, water and human resources. The other practice is tree planting.

SOME SEALS CAN'T "WALK"

Sea lions progress on land in a waddling walk, with the hind flippers serving as legs. The hair seals, which have no external ears, are unable to move in this manner. Their hind flippers are grown solidly to the tail and are directed permanently backwards.

from South America, and Miss Eloise Requa, director of the Library.

The exhibit may be seen for one week following April 24. It will not be open Sunday. It will be displayed at 56 East Randolph street in the third floor meeting room used jointly by the Pan American Council, the Institute of Pacific Relations, and the American-Scandinavian Foundation.

Farm Bureau Will Sponsor Baseball Teams in Ogle Co.

Farm Bureau baseball teams are to be sponsored by Ogle County Farm Bureau again this year according to a decision of the executive board, and a committee having charge of the project has announced a meeting to be held at the court house at Oregon on Wednesday evening, April 24 to which ball players of Farm Bureau families are invited to come and make plans for the schedule of games for this season.

The committee consisting of A. R. Hagedorn, Rochelle; H. H. Baker, Mt. Morris; Walter DeVries, Forreston; John D. Coffman, Polo and Claude Holmes, Lindenwood have recommended a hard ball project for adults and a soft ball project for 4-H members. It is hoped to secure enough players in the hard ball project to make two teams in the county for practice games in order to give a larger number of boys a chance to play than in past years and an opportunity to select a strong county team on the basis of performance in practice games.

It is planned that the county team will play with teams from other counties in the northern Illinois district to select the winning team to play at the Sports Festival at Urbana this fall.

Hazelwood Farms Save 1,013 Chicks in 5 Weeks

The Hazelwood farms north of Dixon have made a good record with chicks which were purchased at a Polo hatchery. Five weeks ago the farms bought 1,027 chicks and at the end of the fifth week, 1,013 of them were still living and doing well. Chicken raisers agree that this is an outstanding record.

Electrical Project is To Be Offered to 4-H Boys of Ogle County

With the increased use of electricity on farms it is expected there will be considerable interest in a new 4-H club project on electrical wiring which is offered in Ogle county this year.

The project is available to 4-H boys of 15 to 20 years of age. It will emphasize uses and costs of electricity on the farm, the construction and repair of wiring systems, the function of switches and control equipment and wiring plans for the farm and home.

The boys will be required to figure monthly operating cost of items of equipment on the farm and to make a diagram of their present wiring system if they have electricity. They will learn how to splice wires, repair extension cords and will be given a lesson on wiring the farm shop. The Illinois Northern Utilities Company has offered to give assistance in this project.

GOP Committee Organization For County Complete

From a point of attendance and interest yesterday afternoon's gathering of the Lee County Republican central committee was one of the best in years. H. C. Warner of this city was the unanimous choice for the chairmanship of the committee for another term and Sam Miller of Paw Paw was elected secretary. Chairman Warner commended the committee for its fine cooperation during the spring primary which resulted in remarkable success.

The following were named as members of the executive committee: George Carpenter, Fred J. Kersten, George Schnuckel, Fred Gross, Robert W. Sterling, L. G. Grampp, Robert Anderson, John R. Crawford and Stoddard Danekas.

Chairman Warner announced that he would entertain members of the committee and their ladies at a dinner in the summer, the date to be announced later. Committeemen were urged to select a young woman and young man in every precinct in the county for purpose of perfecting a young Republicans' organization. The chairman of the county women's organization will also be selected at this meeting.

A committee composed of Fred Wood of Ashton, Robert Sterling of Dixon and Wilder Richardson of Compton was named to select the delegates and alternates to the state convention which are, as follows:

Delegates Named

Delegates—H. C. Warner, Fred Kersten, Fred Wagner, George Schnuckel, George Spangler, Edward Guffin James E. Bales, Robert Sterling, Louis Grampp, Robert Anderson, Louis Atkins, Stoddard Danekas, S. L. Miller, George B. Shaw, Morey C. Pires and Lyle Prescott.

Alternates—James E. Curran, Clinton Emmert, Glen Coe, George Carpenter, Dr. S. R. Dickie, Blanche Cryor, Millard Fell, Lyle Snader, Edward Stanley, Sterling Schrock, Gilbert Finch, Grover W. Gehant, Ray Fortney, Frank Nangle, Wilder Richardson, Edwin S. Rosecrans, George C. Dixon.

Senator George C. Dixon suggested a series of meetings in each township during the fall campaign to terminate with a county-wide tour. In addressing the committeemen the senator requested the correction of a statement made in the press last week which purported to express the opinion of Republican senators with reference to old age pensions.

"No action was taken by the Republican senators at the meeting in Springfield last week on the question of the old age pension," Senator Dixon said. "The expression contained in press reports was that of a single Republican member of the Senate who voiced his own ideas on the subject. The Republican senators are deeply concerned in the welfare of the aged of Illinois. It is my opinion that sufficient funds are available if administered properly to provide adequately for the aged of Illinois."

The senator expressed his appreciation of the efforts of the Lee county board of supervisors in attempting to secure for Lee county a proper proportionment of taxes. Under the present administrations, he said, legislation had been enacted which was detrimental to counties of the classification of Lee county, which, he added, are not being treated fairly.

Not One Dollar Back

Lee county paid into the state treasury last year for the three cent sales tax, the sum of $318,897.12 and the tax payers of the county paid in the sum of $106,299.04 which supposedly was to be used in the support of paupers in the county. After being redistributed and allocated at Springfield, he added, not one dollar was returned to Lee county for relief purpose. The board of supervisors, he said, had protested vehemently for a long time against the practice, and he promised his support in their continued protest. The practice of spending the money in the larger counties of the state, he said, was unjust and unfair.

Referring to the assessment from state employees of two per cent of their salaries for campaign funds, Senator Dixon stated that he had received complaints of the practice in Dixon. He cited the payroll of the Dixon state hospital for the past two years amounting to $859,346.00, adding that the administration had violated the law in forcing the civil service employees to be assessed for political purposes.

"I hope that the Lee county grand jury in January will investigate these practices and that some citizen will file a complaint, which I believe will be done, and this practice stopped in this locality," he concluded.

Chairman Warner added to the criticism by stating that a gross in equality was being practiced by the federal government in making appropriations to southern states to the great disadvantage of Illinois.

Can Fill Vacancies

A resolution which was unanimously adopted, authorized the Lee county delegation to the state convention to cast the entire vote of the delegation on all subjects coming before the convention and empower the delegation to fill any vacancies which may occur.

Frank Nangle of Paw Paw, Morey C. Pires and Edwin S. Rosecrans of Dixon, nominees, respectively, for the offices of coroner, state's attorney and circuit clerk, thanked the committee members for their support during the April primaries.

Deputy Sheriff Lyle Snader addressed the committee urging the organization of a Young Republican unit in the county with representatives from every township, to become an active and effective branch of the county committee.

County Judge Grover Gehant spoke of the lack of necessary funds in Lee county to meet the demands for mother's pensions and commended the county organization and its efficient chairman.

The newly appointed executive committee held a meeting later yesterday afternoon and elected Robert W. Sterling chairman, and Louis Grampp, secretary.

The U. S. coast and geodetic survey bureau was established in 1807 as a part of the treasury department. It was transferred to the commerce department in 1903.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

Olaf Tryggvason Fights Again

There was a great king once in Norway, giant, red-bearded Olaf Tryggvason. Down out of those legendary days of Vikings and sea-corsairs, comes a story that is probably remembered in the hills where the Norwegian men of today are rallying to defend their olden land.

Olaf was king of Norway by the right by which men first became kings—he was the strongest and ablest. He was so dextrous and skillful that he could walk along the oars outside his ship as the rowers worked them or he could juggle three sharp swords, catching each in turn by the hilt. So rugged was he that he climbed the Smalsor Horn, and hung his shining shield atop the peak no man had climbed before.

Born of an exiled mother and a murdered father, Olaf grew up in Russia, and at 19 became a sea-rover in the Baltic. All the coasts of Scotland, England, Ireland, the Hebrides and Wales knew the terror of his forays. He even entered the Thames and attacked London, but was fought and bought off. In the Scilly Islands he was converted to Christianity.

Returning to his own land he found it in a state of rebellion, and quickly won election as king. His first task was to Christianize the country. His deeds as king formed the subject for the skalds, or heroic poets, whose works persist today.

There came war with Denmark, and Olaf was tricked into a bad position with only part of his fleet. He scorned to flee. High on the quarterdeck of the Long Serpent, with a gilt shield, golden helmet, and bright red coat, he was a mark for all eyes, all weapons. After a long and bloody day of battle, the Serpent was finally surrounded and boarded, and her defenders hewn down.

Olaf Tryggvason leaped into the sea and was never seen again in Norway. There were legends that he escaped, that he would return.

The resolute defense of the utterly unprepared

SERIAL STORY

K. O. CAVALIER

BY JERRY BRONDFIELD

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Val sees little of Eddie on the return trip. The last night out, he finds her on the after deck, kissing her. There are in different languages, he insists, and he has no business kidding himself.

CHAPTER XXIII

WHEN Val finally went to bed she knew what she was going to tell Rodney Blair if he asked her again to marry him. She found it quite a relief now that she had made up her mind. She wondered if Rodney would be there to meet them when they docked. She had a hunch he would.

Val was right. When they finally slipped alongside their dock and were made fast, she saw Rodney Blair waving up at her.

Rodney wasn't the only one there, however. Sam Golden was so excited he almost fell into the bay.

A half dozen sports writers were on hand and a battery of photographers made ready to shoot the works.

Once again she had changed into more feminine clothes, donning the same suit she had worn when she boarded the ship almost two weeks ago.

Eddie Cavalier was watching her when she ran down the gang-plank and up to the tall, mustached man at the gate. He saw her kiss him lightly and turned away. Turning, he bumped into Capt. Steve Hansen.

"Well, Steve, coming to the fight tomorrow night? Bring all the boys. Don't worry about tickets. They're on me."

He laughed somewhat nervously. Deliberately Hansen looked at Val walking off with Rodney Blair. Then he looked back at Eddie.

"We'll be there, all right, son. An' we're for you all the way. In every way, too," he said but the significance was lost on Eddie.

EDDIE CAVALIER was too busy trying to drive the memory of Val kissing the stranger out of his mind.

Sam Golden embraced him like a long-lost son. The cameramen were snapping pictures all over the place. But when they looked for Val Douglas she had disappeared.

Eddie swore at himself when he searched for her face at the boxing commission's office when they reported for the weighing ceremonies at noon the next day. She wasn't there. He wondered if she'd be at the fight.

He posed for the photographers shaking hands with Corky Briggs. Corky looked good. He looked bigger and stronger than when Eddie had last seen him. The photographers asked them to square off together for a shot and Eddie wished someone would ring the bell right then and let them get it over with.

Duffy and Pop didn't let him out of sight once that afternoon. They went back to their hotel. Pop told him to lie down and nap for a couple of hours. He lay on the bed for 10 minutes and got up. He was thirsty, he explained to Duffy.

Duffy pulled up a chair and sat down next to him. "Eddie," he said, "you're not fooling me. It's that girl. I know. Of all the times for a dame to put the clamp on you it had to be now!"

"Eddie . . . don't you see . . . you've GOT to get her out of your mind. Look, Eddie . . . I'm not tryin' to run your private life. But at a time like this . . . this is different. Anyway . . . anyway, she's strictly poison."

"Don't ever say that again, Duffy. Never. I love that girl."

A great weight seemed to fall on Duffy Kelso and crush him. There were tears in his eyes as he got to his feet. He crossed to the window and looked out. Duffy Kelso also had a love. He loved Eddie Cavalier as a father loved a son. And now Duffy felt like a father seeing that son hurt. If only it were a dream. But it was real. Brutally real.

POP GRIMES could never recall when it had been so quiet in Eddie Cavalier's dressing room before a fight. Absolutely no one was to be admitted. Duffy had notified the guard outside. No one. Not even reporters.

Pop gave Eddie's bandages a final inspection, wordlessly. The only sound in the room was the drip, drip of a faucet. Duffy took out a cigar. He couldn't smoke in the dressing room, so he chewed it viciously.

Pop didn't like things the way they were. It was a violin string stretched too tight. He was afraid. He wished the preliminary would be over so they could go to work. Outside he could hear the muffled roar of the crowd. Someone must have been belted a good one.

Then, after hours, it seemed, they knocked on the door. "Okay, Cavalier," a muffled voice said, and they went out into the night and down the crowded aisle. Eddie almost ran. A tremendous roar went up as he climbed through the ropes. Another, an instant later, heralded Corky Briggs. Corky came over and shook hands with Eddie in his corner.

Eddie looked down at the ring-side as he shuffled his feet in the resin and suddenly froze. Val

Norwegians shows that the spirit, at least, of their national hero Olaf Tryggvason did not die.

As the English soldiers saw the angels at Mons, as the flaming spirit of Jeanne d'Arc appeared in the clouds to Frenchmen standing in the shambles of Verdun, so it is likely that to some of the Norse civilian-warriors, rallying in the mountains to defend their ancient land, the spirit of red-bearded Olaf with his defiant golden shield and helmet may be as good as visible.

Vote-Getter or Humanitarian?

Mr. Roosevelt has been referred to very often—perhaps too often—as a great humanitarian. Some have begun taking the expression with two or three grains of salt, and these may find some support from a surprisingly unexpected quarter. That quarter is the President's wife.

Practical New Deal humanitarianism applies itself most consistently to those who have votes or can create a great rumput. Mrs. Roosevelt happened to discover that the Blue Plains home for the aged and infirm was not all it should be. Old and helpless people were maintained, as one Washington writer describes it, "herded together like forgotten cattle and lacking in medical attention, with only one half-day doctor for an institution that requires a large staff."

Blue Plains is Washington's home for the aged. They can't vote. The same writer spoke of Tugwell-town where families of not more than $2,000 a year income are maintained in dwellings costing $16,000 a unit just across the line in Maryland. Marylanders can vote, and the Tugwelltown Marylanders of less than $2,000 income represent a large class. Everyone can hope to get into some Tugwelltown. Few of us have known anything about Blue Plains.

Mrs. Roosevelt, being a humanitarian (whether practical or not) blew the lid off at Blue Plains. She's not running for office.

While Mrs. Roosevelt was blowing off the lid, says the Washington writer, " . . . one of the district commissioners under whose term of office these conditions had existed at Blue Plains for seven years of the New Deal, was reappointed by the President . . ."

"And a complacent Senate promptly confirmed him without troubling to find out why he had not discovered these frightful conditions himself, since that, presumably was his job."

Musical Melting Pot

While the German legions were in the very act of invading Norway and Denmark, an odd little demonstration was being given in Cleveland.

Erich Leinsdorf, Austrian, was directing a Metropolitan Opera performance of "Tannhauser," an opera by the German, Wagner. Singing were Kirsten Flagstad, Norwegian; Lauritz Melchior, Dane; Kerstin Thorberg, Swede; Herbert Janssen, German; Alexander Kipnis, Russian and Arnold Gabor, Hungarian.

Man can be international in music, art, and literature. But when he comes to politics he reverts to a much more primitive nationalism. Would there be greater harmony, do you suppose, if every country fired its political leaders and appointed orchestra leaders in their places?

News Behind THE NEWS

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, April 23—Russia has been scratched from the list of primary world threats by top-most United States diplomats.

Their grapevine telegraph reports the Finnish campaign has taken the manganese out of Stalin. The man of steel is now past 61 and those who have seen him lately, have noticed it. From his most recent acts it is likewise noticeable that his well known dreams of further expansion have been abandoned after the miserable failure of his army.

Before the Finnish campaign, for instance, he was talking tough with Persia and concentrating his troops on the Persian border. Now he has negotiated a trade agreement.

At the outset of the Finnish campaign it was rather well-known in world diplomatic quarters that he intended to continue swiftly on through Finland to the northern Norwegian coast, stopping at a point north of Narvik where he expected to run up to the northward German expanding sphere of influence. The Russian plan also called, as has been more widely advertised, for expansion in the Balkans and Near East to reclaim Bessarabia and the Dardanelles, and to open an outlet to the Indian ocean through Persia. That was when Stalin thought he had a crack army.

Now it is considered doubtful whether he will even attempt to claim Bessarabia unless Hitler first crushes any prospect of Rumanian resistance.

Softening of Hitler's co-conspirator is evident again in the move to get a trade pact with Great Britain. Hatred of the British was a cardinal Stalin principle until a few weeks ago. The automatic soviet press had been daily lading abuse upon the British. Then something happened. The British threatened a blockade against Russia in the Pacific. Since then rapprochement has been more or less openly discussed by the soviet ambassador in London and by the Red press.

What brought them down to British earth is the fact that they have about $10,000,000 worth of goods in the United States which they are very anxious to have. They cannot get these supplies, mostly machine tools, because ship owners are afraid to risk the passage to Vladivostok in the face of the threatened British seizure.

The British are not being fooled by the situation if our folks are accurately informed. The British know the Reds want to soften them up to the point of relaxing the Pacific blockade, but not of course to the degree of reestablishing friendly or anti-German relations.

No stock is taken here in the stories now going around that Stalin has split with Hitler or that Hitler has suddenly discovered he cannot get what he wants from Russia and therefore, is ready to drop the Moscow end of the axis. Der well-informed fuehrer was accurately informed in advance of just how little he could expect from the inefficient Reds and just how long it would take him to get anything at all. Internal Russian economic disorganization due to the Finnish war apparently has delayed his acquisitions somewhat but not to the extent of causing him to abandon the deal.

Thus you may expect Lord Halifax to deal slowly and craftily in his promised "exploration of the possibilities" of a trade treaty.

The Latin-American good neighbor policy has proved to be a great social success during Pan American week, but there are still some doubts about its commercial accomplishments.

Friendliest personal contacts have now been established between North and South American nations, but tangible results are lacking and prospects are diminishing.

The European war has cost South America its best trade. This has resulted in a further shortage of foreign exchange with which to pay for exports from the United States.

American business men who took to good neighboring eagerly because they expected the Export-Import bank to finance the sales freely, have lost some of their enthusiasm. They find credits restricted by the ability to pay. Furthermore, this country is entering a political campaign in which it will be impossible for statesmen to permit extensive imports of South American products which compete with American agriculture.

Thus within recent months the trade negotiations between Argentina and Uruguay have been abandoned, and the dickering with Chile has failed to reach a negotiation stage because the Chilean earthquake has caused that gov-

AP Reports Gossip Among Politicians in Washington

Washington, April 23—(AP)—Primary election voting in Pennsylvania, with interest centering on the efforts of Senator Joseph Guffey to win Democratic renomination, was accompanied today by these developments on the national political scene:

1. President Roosevelt disclosed plans for what the White House called a 21-day non-political trip across the country in June, at a time when the Republican convention will be in session.
2. Senator Downey (D-Calif.) joined anti-third term ranks in the midst of a California primary fight among delegate slates supporting Roosevelt and Vice-President Garner.
3. Senator Norris (Ind.-Neb.), a third term advocate, told reporters he was "afraid" the President would not run again. "I think he would like to retire and get a rest", Norris said.
4. Republican Chairman John Hamilton proposed that members of the party platform committee meet well in advance of the June 24 convention to begin their complicated task.

Today's Pennsylvania balloting held no special significance from a national standpoint, although convention delegates were being chosen by both Democrats and Republicans. Roosevelt was unopposed in the Democratic preference primary, which does not bind the delegation. The Republican ballot bore the name of no presidential aspirant.

Senator Guffey was opposed for renomination by Walter A. Jones, Pittsburgh oil man. Both are new dealers.

In the Republican senatorial primary, Jay Cooke of Philadelphia, the state organizations choice, was running against Albert B. Lader, Philadelphia attorney, and John A. Derenzo, Altoona newspaper publisher.

Roosevelts cross-country tour, announced late yesterday at Warm Springs, Ga., tentatively will include speeches in North Carolina, Mississippi, California and Washington state. Roosevelt said with a smile that they would be limited largely to the subject of conservation.

Politicians recalled that the President also was on the road during the 1936 Republican convention, and wondered whether his forthcoming journey would give any clue as to his third term intentions.

Senator Downey wrote Democratic Chairman Farley that his opposition to another Roosevelt nomination was based on his belief that "no president should be elected a third time." The California senator's aides said he had not discussed the subject in advance with Farley, who is a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

6,582 Unemployed of Lee Co. Got $66,053

Six thousand, five hundred and eighty-two unemployed workers in Lee county were paid $66,053 in unemployment compensation during the benefit year that ended March 31, the state department of labor reports. In Bureau county 10,813 workers drew $118,345; Carroll county's 940 unemployed were paid $8,257; 3,291 in Jo Daviess county were paid $30,274; 38,314 in LaSalle county drew a total of $473,379; Ogle county had 4,701 unemployed who received checks totaling $41,379; the pay of $19,540 in Stephenson county went to 4,230 persons; Whiteside's 7,052 idle received $85,318 and 27,501 in Winnebago got $341,273.

Clubs

Royal Cardinals—Following the regular meeting of the Royal Cardinals club here last night, President Henry Whitebread today announced that a total of $146.14 has been raised for the milk fund by which the club supplies milk to needy school children of Dixon.

Of this total $82.12 has been raised in collections in the cardinal-colored milk bottles which are stationed in about 50 stores and restaurants of the city. An additional $64.02 was obtained in a tag day early in March. Private donations have amounted to $9.

The milk bottles netted $2.67 on March 4; $42.13 on March 8; $16.33 on March 22; $7.90 on April 6 and $13.99 on April 19. The bottles will be taken in May 3.

School officials have praised the club for its work in aiding undernourished children and the Cardinals have expressed their appreciation to those who have contributed to make the project a success.

Bible Class—Mrs. H. F. Ware, 333 Chamberlain street, will be hostess to the Women's Bible class of the Methodist church at 2:30 p. m. Thursday. Mrs. Mary Deutsch will give an account of her winter vacation in California.

Election—Members of Mrs. H. L. Wadsworth's class of St. Paul's Lutheran church elected officers at their April meeting at the home of Mrs. Hattie Hill. The new officers include:

President Miss Blanche Klosterman; vice president, Mrs. Loretta Anders; secretary, Miss Lillian Schick; treasurer, Mrs. Vera Hughes; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edith Brown; pianist, Mrs. Edna Grobe.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Fuils entertained with a moving picture. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Ogle County Tavern Owner Loses License

(Telegraph Special Service)
Oregon, April 23—The license of Orville Hiscox, operator of a roadhouse on route 2, three miles southwest of here, was revoked by the county liquor commission Monday afternoon following Hiscox's arrest early Sunday morning by Sheriff James White.

Hiscox appeared before Justice of the Peace Chester Landers this afternoon on a charge of permitting a gambling device to be in operation at the establishment. He arranged bond of $200 and the case was continued until April 29.

The raid was staged at 3 a. m. Sunday. Several persons found in the road house were fined on misdemeanor counts, White said.

Hiscox also faces charges of selling liquor after hours, permitting dancing after hours and selling liquor to minors.

HOUSEWIVES SURPRISED AT THE DELICIOUS FLAVOR

... OF NEW WHITE BREAD THAT CONTAINS RICH Heart of the Wheat

You, too, will be surprised at this new white bread's marvelous flavor! For it has the same wonderful goodness as the rich, wheaty-tasting bread grandmother used to bake. Made possible because it's baked from a new WHITE Flour—which, like grandmother's flour, contains the HEART (or EMBRYO) of the wheat—the part that has the richest flavor.

The wheat HEART also contains essential, life-giving vitamins B₁ and B₂ (G). These aid digestion, stimulate the appetite, promote general health. Ask for a loaf of this new bread today!

Dixon Clubwomen Are Arranging Jubilee Dinner

Hundreds of Women's clubs throughout the National Federation are arranging birthday parties for Wednesday in celebration of the Federation's golden anniversary. Members of the Dixon Woman's club have planned a jubilee dinner for tomorrow evening at the Methodist church in observance of the event.

The following program will be presented, following the dinner: Songs, "Song of the Winds," (Ernest F. Hawke) and "I Heard a Forest Praying," (Peter De Rose), Woman's club chorus, directed by Mrs. I. B. Potter; Mrs. Howard Edwards, accompanist.

Ladies' quartet, "Glad Golden Jubilee," Mrs. Alfred Tice, Mrs. H. M. Edwards, Mrs. Burl Lepird, and Mrs. Curt Johnson. Mrs. B. R. Jacobson, accompanist. Introduction of past presidents and past district presidents of Dixon, Mrs. Mary Deutsch. Playlet, "Little Acorns," Mrs. E. Melville Hayes. Vocal solos, "Ah, Moon of My Delight," (Lehman); and "I Know Two Bright Eyes," (Clutsum), J. V. Ridolph.

The first scene of the play depicts the ladies' parlor of Scottish Rite hall, Madison avenue in New York City, fifty years ago. The second scene represents the ante room of a Woman's club room.

Mrs. J. R. McDaniel and Mrs. E. H. Prince will accept dinner reservations, not later than this evening.

The National Federation anniversary program will be released over the National Broadcasting company's Blue network between 2 and 2:30 p. m. tomorrow, Central Standard Time. Mrs. Harold V. Saidenberg Symphonietta Will Appear Here Tonight

The Saidenberg Symphonietta

Daniel Saidenberg, former solo cellist with the Chicago Symphony orchestra, will present members of his Symphonietta in concert at 8:15 o'clock this evening in the Dixon high school auditorium. The total value of eleven of the instruments which the musicians will play tonight is estimated in excess of $50,000. Leonard Sorkin, concertmaster, will play his $10,000 Guadagnini made in 1782; Sheppard Lehnhoff will play a viola solo on an instrument made in 1670 by Christophorus Klingler, valued at $3,000, and Dudley Powers, cello soloist, will bring with him a $3,000 instrument made in 1692 by Testore.

The average age of the instruments is 200 years old, the oldest being 269 years old, and the newest, 115.

SERVICE CLUB REVIEWS WORK OF PAST YEAR

Accomplishments of the Service club for the past year were reviewed when the club members met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sherwood Dixon. The club members have contributed $200 to the building fund of Katherine Shaw Betha hospital, besides equipping a hospital room, and donating a quantity of sewing.

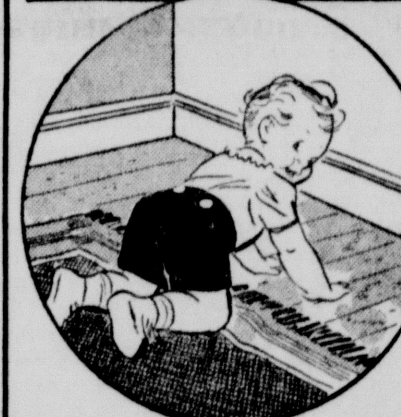

A letter of appreciation was read from the hospital board at yesterday's meeting. Plans were also discussed for an old-fashioned ice cream social which the club expects to sponsor at the John Roe home in Grand Detour in June.

SOUTH SIDE CLUB

Mrs. I. B. Hofer was hostess to members of the South Side bridge club yesterday.

Lovely to wear with the new stiff silk suits are gossamer sheer blouses of handmade imported Aicon lace in a glowing champagne shade. Short-sleeved and with a frothy bow at the neckline, they are subtly flattering at the cocktail hour, or at dinner worn with a long black evening skirt.

RURAL STUDENTS OF OGLE COUNTY WILL PRESENT FESTIVAL

Pupils from 14 rural schools in Ogle county will appear in a music festival to be presented at 8 o'clock Saturday in the Buffalo Township hall at Polo. Mrs. Carrie Wales and Mrs. Pauline Grant, music supervisors, are in charge of the program.

Schools to be represented include Harmony Hill, Woosung, Anterior, Center, Moore, Henry, Unity, Eagle Point, Brookville, Buffalo Grove, Donaldson, Barclay, Brand, and Doty.

Especially suitable for summer window dress are curtains of new glass fabric. They are easily washable, need no ironing and are resistant to shrinkage, mildew stains, wrinkles and fire. The styles are attractive, too—plain hemmed, or with lace insertions, and some with hand-painted colored designs.

Japan has 175,761 motor vehicles, a survey made in 1938 indicates.

Woman Believes Encephalitis Is Drought-Caused

Norman, Okla., April 23.—(AP)—

Dr. Alma J. Neill, who has spent seven years seeking the cause of encephalitis, a brain inflammation

commonly known as sleeping sickness, is "more firmly convinced than ever" that both humans and animals contract the disease from eating drought-affected grains.

The University of Oklahoma

physiology professor said today

she was continuing the extensive research she started in 1933 after a sleeping sickness epidemic took lives in St. Louis, hoping that a cure can be developed if the cause is established definitely.

After working in secrecy for more than four years, Dr. Neill disclosed the first results of her research at a meeting of the American Association of Pathologists

in 1935 in Baltimore.

She outlined her belief that the disease sprang from an "alcohol soluble toxin" a poison which cannot be broken down by heat—in sweet corn, and that it actually was not contagious.

Dr. Neill, who grew up on an Illinois corn farm, hit upon the idea while driving past corn fields near St. Louis at the time of the 1933 epidemic.

Experimented With Rats

Noticing that dry weather had turned the stalks an unnatural color, she obtained ears of corn from several fields and brought them to her laboratory, where she experimented with rats—"hundreds of them".

"I could make the rats go to sleep and recover, or make them go to sleep and not recover," she said, "by varying the amount of toxin".

In conducting post mortems on rodents and small animals killed by the disease, she found that the nervous systems—especially the brains—were affected the same as those of humans who had been trol of the industry".

Another witness, Andrew Rudolph Onda of Cleveland, joined mittee information on party members' names. Onda contended such action would subject communists to "black-listing" by employers.

Charge Reversible Error

Annenberg and Braubach, in the brief today said the court committed a reversible error by admitting evidence of the Annenberg wealth on the sole suppo-

ground that it would tend to support Keen's testimony that he had been paid $20,000 annually by the Annenberg corporations for several previous years.

"The only real purpose of this evidence was to tell the jury that one of the defendants, Walter Annenberg, was a rich man and the son of a rich man," the appeal brief said.

Keen Files Reply

The testimony complained of was that the Annenbergs were "engaged at that time in the Miami Beach Tribune, the Miami

Tribune, New York Telegraph,

General News Bureau, Nationwide

News Bureau, Radio Guide, Cecelia

Corporation, Daily Racing Form,

Circulation Agencies, newspaper and magazine circulation agencies in various cities, and extensive real estate operations".

A reply brief, filed for Keen, set forth that evidence of the Annenberg wealth, such as the fact that a butler who wore "evening clothes" was employed at the Wyoming ranch, were "inherent in the fact situation and bound to appear in the course of the trial".

The abstract shows that Keen testified, despite objections, that he was visiting the Annenbergs in connection with information he had been compiling concerning various newspapers.

homa authorities, ruling that he had rehabilitated himself.

Jarrett was represented at yesterday's hearing by Charles R.

game of economic strangulation in a war of attrition that it would be folly for him not to strive for an early termination of the conflict.

Actually the way things have turned out it undoubtedly would have been far better for nazidom had Herr Hitler taken advantage of his own military preparedness and allied weakness at the outbreak of the war last September and struck at them with all his might. British Premier Chamberlain taunted him with this the other day, the austere prime minister even breaking away from his usual meticulous English to tell the world in slang that the nazis had "missed the bus".

The reason Hitler held his hand so long undoubtedly was because he hoped to get peace without further fighting. However, his occupation of Denmark and assault on Norway made it quite clear that he had abandoned that idea at last.

He now knows that the only road to peace is to defeat the allies or to abandon the fight. There is small chance of peace by negotiation.

The fuhrer's huge gamble on Denmark and Norway also indicated, to my mind, that he was getting worried about the undoubted pressure which the allied blockade is putting on Germany. That blockade is working, and it is getting tighter every day.

When the war broke out Hitler had piled up a very considerable reserve of foodstuffs and war materials. The world at large never has found out the extent of those supplies, but they were variously estimated to be sufficient to last a year or more, apart from the current crops and imports.

At that time the fuhrer figured the vast Danubian granary, over which he had a strong politico-economic control, and Russia would furnish him all the supplies he needed, so that the blockade would be ineffective.

But things have gone wrong. The allies have raided the Balkans and diverted a lot of products Hitler needed. Communications have failed over wide areas during the winter. There has been a shortage of Rumania's all-essential oil. Russia is said to have produced little.

The latest blow to Germany is the unfavorable crop report from the Danubian district. Rumania, Hungary and Bulgaria—all heavy exporters of wheat and other products to Germany—report that prospects are the poorest in a decade.

Thus we see that Germany has every reason to figure that the end of 1940 might find the national cupboard pretty bare, and raw materials for industries scarce, assuming that the allied blockade keeps on tightening.

Meantime, of course, the already tight economic and financial position in Germany won't be improving.

Furthermore, Germany's military preparedness is expected to reach its peak this year. The allies may not attain theirs for a couple of years or more.

The nazi air-force, on which Herr Hitler must depend so much from now on, is numerically superior to the combined allied force, at this juncture, but the allies are catching up rapidly.

All in all, this looks like the appointed time for Hitler to lash out at the allies, and it may be expected that he will do this in an effort to secure a quick decision.

And if the end of this year doesn't actually see the finish of the war, yet it is not at all unlikely that by then it will be to all intents decided, but with the beaten side hanging on in hope of a reprieve.

Johnson Says New Deal is Ruling by Minority

Chicago, April 23.—(AP)—General Hugh Johnson believes that the Roosevelt administration has created "minority rule by a radical bloc", but Secretary of the Interior Ickes contends that it "has saved us from disaster".

They expressed those views in a debate last night in Chicago's Civic Opera House on "Shall the New Deal Have a Third Term?" "Let's not let the new deal minority bloc party continue in office if we want to continue our constitutional system of government", advised Columnist Johnson, who formerly was NRA Administrator.

Ickes, who lauded President Roosevelt's aims and accomplishments, declared:

"The Roosevelt administration took over a broken-down economic system and re-built it. The people of the United States are satisfied with the result".

President Sees Canadian Prime Minister Today

Warm Springs, Ga., April 23.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, who once promised Canada American help against any attack from overseas, had an engagement today with W. L. MacKenzie King, the dominion's prime minister.

The conflict in Europe has underscored the president's remarks, made in an address at Kingston, Ontario.

But what Roosevelt and MacKenzie King had to discuss was a secret, and likely to remain one.

Roosevelt announced MacKenzie King's visit at a press conference yesterday and also disclosed tentative arrangements for a transcontinental trip, dotted with speeches, which is sure to compete in the news with the Republican national convention.

The war and adjournment of congress permitting, Roosevelt said he would set out in June on a 21-day tour.

The Republicans meet June 24 in Philadelphia.

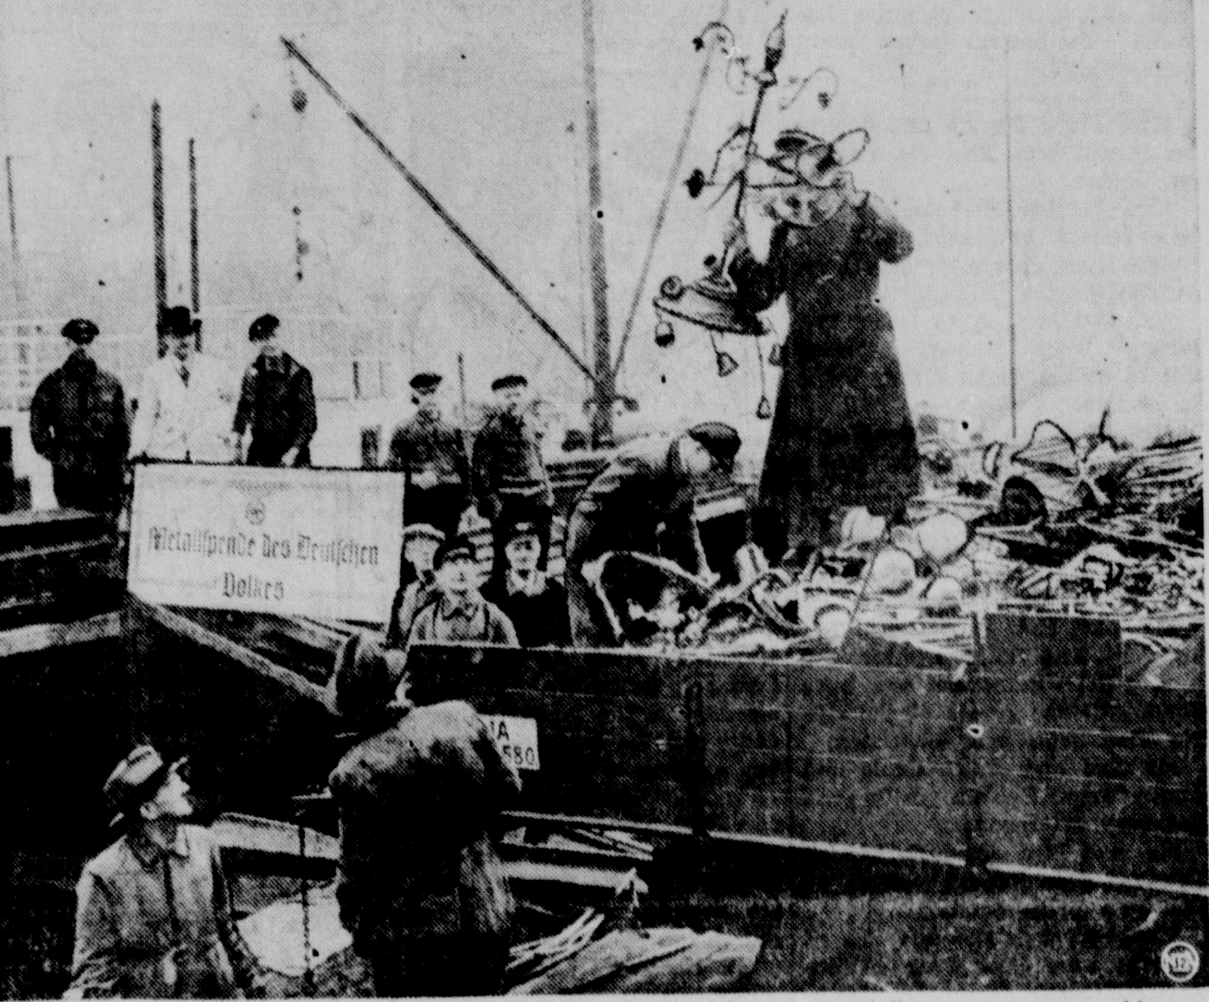

During their convention in Cleveland in 1936, Roosevelt captured many a headline with speeches in Arkansas and Texas on a trip which the White House termed "non-political".

The president said this year's trip would be entirely non-political, but he said it with a smile.

He asserted that the theme of his speeches would be conservation—a subject broad enough to cover all sorts of possibilities.

His traveling schedule calls for a stop in Texas, home state of Vice President Garner; a candi-

Former Owner of Death Plane Faces Accusation

Belleville, Ill., April 23.—(AP)—

P. T. Smith of St. Louis, former owner of the airplane which crashed Sunday killing two men, has been named on an information filed in St. Clair county court with violation of the Illinois aeronautics act.

Issued on complaint of the State Aeronautics commission, the information charged he had flown the 9-year-old plane without proper license from the U. S.

Lee Democratic Committee Wants F. D. R. To Accept

After unanimously re-electing Sherwood Dixon chairman for another term at yesterday afternoon's organization meeting, members of the Democratic county central committee named Leo H. Lehman of Nelson as vice chairman; J. R. Fitzsimmons of Dixon as secretary and J. A. Edwards of Amboy, treasurer.

The committee adopted a resolution recommending that "every honorable effort be made by the Democratic national convention to prevail upon President Franklin D. Roosevelt to accept renomination in 1940 for the office he has filled with success and distinction".

Delegates and alternates to the state convention were named, as follows:

Delegates—Joseph McGrath, Leo N. Lehman, J. R. Fitzsimmons, John Murray, Jacob Aschenbrenner, Raymond Dinges and Peter Bushbaker.

Alternates—John O'Rourke, August J. Gehant, William Todd, Jr., William F. Hogan, Charles Slain, William Daum, and Rex Bradshaw.

department of commerce while demonstrating it to a prospective purchaser here last Nov. 12.

Smith sold the ship in February to Albert Bonivitch, Lemay, Mo., who was called an "innocent party."

Bonivitch lent the plane to Marion Wainwright, who was piloting it Sunday when a wing collapsed. A passenger, Forest Able, Jr., also died in the crash.

WHEN Willie Woog wanted a new wife, and was willing to hand her old man a dowry of three stone hatchets and a half dozen slightly addled ichthyosaurus eggs, what could he do? If none of the unclaimed Cro-Magnon Mammals in the neighborhood suited him, and his traveling salesman friends didn't know of any suitable Sallies within dinosaur-riding distance, he was in a mess. He could go back to his cave (with hot and cold running salamanders), and try to be contented with the seven wives he already had. Or he could chisel an advertisement on a nearby slab of granite. Man being what he is, he probably chiseled the ad. But he had little chance of getting results.

Had Willie Woog lived in wonderful 1940 A. D. he could have picked up his wonderful streamlined Western Electric French-style telephone and called Miss Ad Taker of The Telegraph. Perhaps Miss Ad Taker wouldn't have married him (and Miss Ad Taker's papa wouldn't have cared about the ichthyosaurus eggs), but Miss Ad Taker could have put Willie Woog's advertisement in a place where it would do Willie Woog plenty of good --- in Telegraph Want Ads, where several hours after he had expressed his desire his message would be read by over 26,000 people.

GABBY'S GIFT TO DIXON BOYS

Ward and Charles Miller attended the Cubs-Cardinals game in Chicago Sunday and saw Dean Blasted off the mound. Ward, a former Cubs player, visited with Gabby Hartnett and the team manager sent one dozen National League baseballs out with Ward for the Dixon Junior American Legion team.

GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

Eddie Nicklaus, manager of the Kellar's softball team, has been selected by O. E. Rowley as the fourth member of the "grievance committee" to serve with him, Jay Curran and Hi Emmert during the approaching season. This committee will attempt to mediate all disputes which may come up among the teams during games and to settle any off-the-diamond differences.

THE "BOBS" WIN

Fifteen Belvidere high school basketball players were awarded letters at the annual banquet last night at which Coach Bud Foster of the University of Wisconsin was the principal speaker. Major letters were given to Robert Lear, Robert Buker, Warren Schwarz, Robert Wickwire, Robert Funderburg, Earl Wight and Robert Lincoln. (Five of the seven answer to the nickname of "Bob"). At Belvidere this year the statistics show that the highest free throw averages during the season were made by Funderburg (57.6 per cent); Lear (47.8 per cent) and Schwarz (45.1 per cent).

WINS GOLF TOURNAMENT

Miss Martha Putnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Putnam of Oregon and a junior at the University of Arizona, won the recently concluded Arizona State Women's golf tournament, according to word received by her parents. The final 36 holes were played on Sunday. Yesterday Miss Putnam played with a foursome in an exhibition game in which Mrs. Opal Hill of Kansas City was also a participant.

NOTE TO FISHERMEN

In answer to queries about the fishing season in Wisconsin, brought up by the success story of Art Wilson and Roy Barron, we learned today that the season opened April 15, considerably earlier than last year. Wilson said today that fishermen from here interested in making the trip should get their reservations in early for accommodations. Reservations may be sent to the Fremont hotel, Fremont, Wis.

STERLING CAPTAIN

Jim Brown has been elected honorary captain of the Sterling high school basketball team for the past season of 1939-40. He is a senior and will be among the four lost to the team next season.

NOTE FOR LITTLE RED BOOK

Jack Sharkey tells us to put it down in our little red book that Jack Ballangee, CYO fighter who decided Eddie Monroe here last week, will be the champion of the world some day. Ballangee, only 18 years old, has had 23 matches in the 10 months he has been boxing and he's won 21. He is the present CYO featherweight champion. In his bout here, the second on the card at the high school auditorium, Ballangee never seemed to let go with his full power against a badly matched opponent. Jack, you know, speaks with authority. Not only has he been an outstanding boxer himself, but he has done a great many jobs as referee.

GAME RELEASED

Nearly 300 pheasants and quail were released throughout Ogle county during the last week by the state department of conservation, according to Charles M. Myers, game warden. Myers said 150 pheasants and 120 quail were released.

CHAMPION IS PRESSED

Bob (Red) McNamee has been showing plenty of flash with the acket as the Dixon high school tennis team continues its spring practice. It is rumored that Bob has given Alan Wieman, North Central conference champion, a real run for his money on several occasions. One member of the team said last night that with the improvements made on the team this year they have hopes of defeating Rockford in the district event next week.

BASEBALL MANAGERS

According to word from William H. Leiser, president of the Illinois State Baseball league, R. Chailand will be manager of the Shabbona team and E. Antoine will pilot the Amboy club. Both teams are new members of the league this year.

BANQUET CIRCUIT

Arthur "Dutch" Lomborg, basketball coach at Northwestern university was the guest speaker at the banquet honoring the players and coaching staff of Oregon high school last night. Lomborg will also address the banquet when the Sterling Gryo club entertains the tournament squads of Sterling, Rock Falls and Community high schools tonight.

TRYING OUT WITH THE BIG BOYS

Leland (Butch) Shoaf, a graduate of the Junior American Legion team, did a little practicing with the Knacks Sunday afternoon. Jim and James Devine are also reported to have tried out with their older brothers.

TWELVE MINUS ONE

Announcement was made today The Hub softball team has dropped out of the league which is to get started May 20. Charles Davis was to have been manager of the team. According to O. E. Rowley there will be no trouble in substituting with another club; however, anyone interested in sponsoring a team is asked to call him at 224.

CINCINNATI MAKES EXPERTS WHO BACKED THEM LOOK GOOD

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Cincinnati Reds are making all the so-called experts who backed them to repeat for the National League pennant look good.

At the end of the first water-logged week of the schedule they are at the top of their circuit with three games won and none lost, but that isn't the whole story.

They never have been behind in any of the games. Their three prize pitchers have gone the full nine-inning round in every case. No more than one run has been scored against them in any contest. The team hasn't committed a single error.

The 6-1 depth bomb they set off under the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday was the most emphatic indication the champions could have given that they are traveling the same trail they took a year ago.

They made a mockery of the challenge the Cards were supposed to be readying this season. They padded three pitchers for nine hits and bunched three runs in both the third and eighth innings. But more than this they presented a smooth, machine-like ball club behind the effective seven-hit hurling of Bucky Walters, who kept the Cards shut out on five hits until the ninth inning.

Hi-Way Grill Finishes With 20-Game Margin Over Runnerup

The final night of bowling in the Ladies' League at the Dixon Recreation made only one change in the standings of the previous week when the Dixon Recreation quintet nosed out the Dr. Bend team for third place honors. The title had long been clinched the Hi-Way Grill and Ray Carson's Service successfully defended the second place position.

As runnersup the members of the Ray Carson club were 20 games behind the leaders and the Dixon Recreation was 21 games out of first place.

In the final games last night the championship Hi-Way Grill club won two games from the Soda Grill. Smith's 502 paced the winners and Stevens led the losers with 477.

Amboy Team Wins

The Amboy Royal Blue team won two games from Ray Carson's. Leake's 411 led the winners and Meinke spilled the pins for a 499 for the losers. The one game saved the Carson team from dropping into a second place tie with the Dixon Recreation.

The Ideal Cafe won two games from Bon Ton with Carson's 454 leading the cafe team and Detweiler's 462 pacing the losers.

Dixon Recreation won two games from Dr. Bends to climb to third place and dropping the losers to fourth. Daschbach's 456 led the winners and Frey counted 446 for the losers.

In the finals of the league the Hi-Way Grill champions took honors in the high team game for the season with 923 and for the high team series with 2547.

Amanda Smith of the championship team and who recently took second place in the current standings of the Rock Island Argus sweepstakes, won honors for the high individual game with 234 and for high individual series with 587.

seven-hit job that stopped the St. Louis Browns, 5-2, and lifted the Tribe into a tie with the idle Boston Red Sox for first place in the American League. All of Cleveland's runs were crowded into the first inning, when Howard Mills couldn't get even one batter out.

The Detroit Tigers put across two runs in the ninth on Earl Averill's pinch-sing to beat the Chicago White Sox, 6-5, and give rookie Dick Conger credit for his first major league victory on one inning's effort. The Sox relied on another freshman, Vallee Eaves, who did an amazing job of holding the enemy to three runs in 7 2-3 innings during which he gave seven hits, 12 bases on balls and made two wild pitches. Yet Clint Brown was charged with the loss.

Lynn Nelson of Detroit was struck on the head by a line-drive and Luke Appling of Chicago was spiked on the knee during the game, but neither was hurt seriously.

Willis Hudlin, Indians—Limited Brown to seven hits to win, 5-2. Eusebio Walters, Reds—Pitched seven-hit ball against Cardinals and drove in three runs to help win own game, 6-1.

Andy K. Is Running Straight

Andy K.

Andy K., above, is running straight, which pleases those who wagered on the Millsdale Stable colt in the winter book to win the Kentucky Derby, May 4. Andy K.'s three losses to Elmelech in 1939 were traceable to his swerving or bearing out. An osselet caused Andy K. to do this and the trouble seems to have been corrected when he was fired last fall. Ralph Neves is the jockey.

U. S. Open Tennis Tourney Opens With Best Field

White Sulphur, Springs, W. Va., April 23—(AP)—The U. S. open tennis tournament, "stormy petrel" of net ranks, opens its fourth annual stand today with its best field, but Simon-pures still can't be persuaded to disregard opposition of the U. S. Lawn Tennis association.

However, red-haired Don Budge, who replaces William T. Tilden II as the tourney's star performer, hails the event as the greatest thing that has happened to tennis in many years.

"Sooner or later," he declares, "the idea of open meetings between pros and amateurs must take hold and be an everyday occurrence for that is the only way we can really develop a lot of tennis material in this country."

Says it's "Old Fashioned"

The California ace insists it's "old fashioned" for the U. S. L. T. A. to keep the two separated.

Only four Simon-pures are among the 39 entries this year. Tilden is busy with a tennis school in Los Angeles but Vincent Richards, who had a hand in creating the tourney, Frank Hunter and Al Chapin, former Davis Cup players, will be out for the crown even though Budge appears to have the field pretty much in his own hands.

Movies of Stateville Prison Will Be Shown Free Here on Tuesday

The Americanization committee of Dixon post No. 12, American Legion has completed arrangements for the showing of an interesting motion picture film in Dixon next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the high school auditorium. The film was taken in the Stateville penitentiary and an official from the institution will bring the picture to Dixon and lecture during its progress.

Through the kindness of the board of education, the high school auditorium has been secured for the showing of this picture and no charge will be made. All of the members of the Big Buddy club and all Boy Scout troops of Dixon will be guests of the Legion Americanization committee and the general public is invited to witness the scenes taken from within the walls of the Stateville penitentiary.

HAD CAUSE TO HURRY

Des Moines, Iowa, April 23—(AP)—Arrested on a speeding charge, L. W. Robson told the judge he had smelled smoke in his car and was rushing to a garage when a motorcycle officer clocked him at 40 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone. When other testimony corroborated Robson's story of his car being on fire, he was acquitted.

IT WASN'T THE MONEY

Albuquerque, N. M., April 23—(AP)—It wasn't the money. It was the principle of the thing.

Mrs. Mary Coan paid a $2.50 docketing fee to appeal a $1 police court fine for a parking violation.

The fine was revoked, but Mrs. Coan also had to pay a lawyer's fee (amount not disclosed).

Minesweeper's Crew Prepares

The casualness of a cigarette does not relieve the tension shown on the face of the British seaman at the extreme right as he scans the mine-laden seas. The job he and his companions, shown inflating their oft-needed life belts, fulfill on the fleet of ceaselessly-patrolling, small British minesweepers is one of the war's most dangerous and least rewarded.

The End of a Magnetic Mine

A mountainous pillar of smoke and water provides a spectacular, momentary tombstone for a death-laden German mine, harmlessly exploded by British navy. Picture, one of first to be released, shows result of equipping Allied ships with "de-Gaussing" device to protect them from Nazi-sown magnetic mine fields.

Reserve Officers Will Have Meeting in Camp

Chicago, April 23—(AP)—It's reveille, the sunrise gun and regular army chow for the delegates to the Illinois Reserve Officers' Association annual convention this year.

Combining business with pleasure, reserve army officers who are members of the association are assembling here Friday for a three-day "contact" camp through which will be woven the routine business of the convention.

Lieut. Col. Benjamin Getzoff, president of the Illinois group, announced the novel experiment today.

Instead of a comfortable hotel bed and a pleasant voice rousing them from slumber at a convenient time, the officers will wake with the sunrise gun, answer reveille in new barracks, the war department has constructed here and will eat army chow prepared by students in the army cooks and bakers school.

Convention business will take up but a small portion of the three days. The rest of the time will be spent absorbing instruction from regular army officers.

Carbonado, a form of diamond not suitable for gems, is more valuable than the diamond itself, since it is slightly harder when used industrially.

Congress Will Study Aimless American Trek

Washington, April 23—(AP)—Congress has decided to study America's phenomenon of human migration—the great, aimless trek of impoverished "Arkies" and "Ookies" in search of new homes and new lands.

A special five-man committee was authorized by the house late yesterday to investigate the migrant problem and recommended remedial legislation.

Rep. Tolan (D-Calif.), sponsor of the inquiry and probable head of the special committee, set a broad field to be covered.

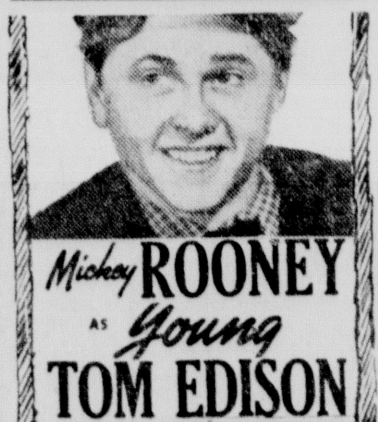

"We are interested," said he, "in families in search of new homes, in America's roadside population, in human erosion in the dust bowl, and in the 350,000 homes on the move at this moment—victims of drought, depression and mechanized farming."

Almost one-third of Iowa's farm land is planted annually to corn and the yield runs as high as 400 million bushels.

Waited 53 Years for Pay for a Day's Work

Crossville, Tenn., April 23—(AP)—In 1887 E. N. Frisby rode the stage coach to Rockwood, Tenn., and got a job as a section hand for a railroad.

After working two days he decided the job was too hard, so he quit and walked off with asking for his pay.

Recently, Frisby, now 77, decided he had waited long enough. He wrote the company and received a check for his pay, $2.75—just 53 years late.

During the term of the first U. S. congress, in the period from 1789 to 1793, the House of Representatives had 65 members. Today it has 435.

The U. S. department of commerce was established in 1903, and the labor department was made a separate office in 1913.

State Parole Board's Chairman Defends Plan

Chicago, April 23—(AP)—The parole system, despite its shortcomings, is the "best method yet devised for the release of prisoners and their subsequent rehabilitation", in the opinion of W. C. Jones, chairman of the Illinois Board of Pardons and Paroles.

Jones remarks prefaced his report yesterday to the seventh annual conference of the central states probation and parole on five-year study of the system in Illinois.

In listing findings of the study, Jones said that of 2,090 men and women paroled in Illinois in 1933, a total of 614 or 29.38 per cent violated their paroles in some manner. Thus, 70.62 per cent completed their parole period in good standing. For 1934, when 2,440 paroles were issued, 27.13 per cent were listed as violators.

Last year, Jones said, only 1.05 per cent of all the men on parole were returned under new sentences as compared with 1.72 per cent in 1933 and 2.30 per cent in 1937.

BRAIN TRUST OF CUBS HAS NOT DECIDED ON DEAN YET

Pittsburgh, April 23—(AP)—The brain trust of the Chicago Cubs hasn't made up its mind yet on the future of Dizzy Dean.

So the talkative righthander will get another starting assignment Thursday when the Cubs open a home series with the Cincinnati Reds.

The St. Louis Cards knocked Dean out of the box Sunday at Chicago in the fifth inning, combining him for seven hits and five runs. Manager Gabby Hartnett says the once-great moundman will have ample opportunity to prove his worth.

"He'll get every chance to prove himself," Hartnett said. "I'll give him his regular turn until we reach some definite result."

Members of the U. S. Naval reserve were placed upon a permanent and recognized basis by act of congress in 1915.
